Dear Parents/Caregivers

A practical component of the Year 12 Physical Education course is Surfing. This program runs at Surfers Beach, Middleton, on Tuesdays from 14 February - 4 April with all equipment supplied.

Students will depart from the Victor Harbor Campus at 1:30pm and depart from Middleton Beach at 3:30pm. Students may select from the following travel options:

- Drive to the beach if consent is indicated overleaf
- Travel to the beach with another student if consent is indicated overleaf
- Travel with Mr Palumbo or another member of staff

Instructor

- A Level 1 Surf Instructor, Grace Gilbert, will be managing the Surfing Program.
- All other instructors involved are fully qualified for their role and responsibilities.

What to bring:

- The College will provide a wetsuit, but your son/daughter may prefer to wear their own.
- A towel, plastic bag, jumper, hat and a drink are compulsory.
- A waterproof jacket is advisable if your son/daughter should decide to exit the water early.

The supervising teacher for this activity is Andrew Palumbo.

The subject levy for this component is $60.00 which will be charged directly to your fee account.

Please return the attached consent form to the College by Monday 13 February.

Yours sincerely

Andrew Palumbo
