

Department of Education & Training Compliance with needs-based funding requirements

It has always been the practice of the South Australian Anglican Schools' System that all government funds are transferred immediately to each of the schools as per the allocation spreadsheets provided to the System by both the Commonwealth and State Governments at the time of receipt of the monies.